IMPORTANT INFORMATION

- PLAN AHEAD. The Embassy has no photocopier/printer/stamps onsite, so prepare your documents ahead.
- ADDITIONAL DOCUMENTS. The consular officer reserves the right to require additional documents to prove identity and/or citizenship, and ensure accurate and complete personal data entries.
- TEMPLATES for affidavits and SPAs can be found at philippineembassy-dc.org/forms/
- WE CANNOT NOTARIZE any of the following: documents issued by government agencies, whether Philippine or foreign (ex. birth/marriage/death certificates, court records, school transcripts, IDs, etc.); photocopied documents; corporate documents; documents intended for countries other than the Philippines; or documents that will be used within the United States.
- NEED A WITNESS? If your documents require a witness, you will need to bring your own independent witness during your appointment. The Embassy does not provide witnesses.
- IF YOU CANNOT TRAVEL TO THE EMBASSY, APOSTILLE is a more convenient alternative. Notarize your documents through your local notary public, obtain an Apostille from a designated authority, and the document will be accepted in the Philippines. The Embassy does not "red ribbon" or apostille documents. All countries and territories under the Embassy's jurisdiction, except Haiti, are members of the Apostille Convention. Visit philippineembassy-dc.org/apostille/ to see the list of designated competent authorities.
- THE EMBASSY ASSUMES NO RESPONSIBILITY for any delays or loss of documents during mail delivery, or while in the custody of the courier service.
